Our liturgy, with its very dramatic and poignant readings, immerses into all of the raw emotions life can often bring. We hear of betrayal, fear, anger, disappointment, confusion, suffering, and even death. The veil of injustice is pulled over the life of the innocent Lamb and God, who walked with us, is called to face his death on the cross. Yet Jesus remains faithful and accepts the fate that is before him. In all of this, he never wavers from the truth and continues to speak of mercy, forgiveness, and a God who loves. When life gets the best of us and brings us to our knees, can we remain faithful to the truth and accept what we cannot control?

APRIL 9, 2017
PALM SUNDAY
"Peter said to him in reply, 'Though all may have their faith in you shaken, mine will never be.'" Peter thought pretty highly of his faith. On the eve of Christ's death he professed, in essence, that he was more committed to Jesus than anyone else. And yet, we know how the story turns out: when put to the test in the moment that mattered, Peter "began to curse and to swear, 'I do not know the man.'" On this Palm Sunday, we hear many stories of betrayal. The crowds, who once hailed Jesus with "hosannas," will soon be chanting, "Let him be crucified!" Judas, who was counted among the closest companions of the Lord, turns him over to the chief priests for thirty pieces of silver. And Peter falls short in the moment of truth, and then "went out and began to weep bitterly."

Here in the hours before Christ faces crucifixion, he is surrounded by false friends. Just when he most needs the support, he is abandoned. No wonder he feels the suffering even of being forgotten by his Father while he hangs on the cross, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" What trials Jesus endured, not only physically but emotionally as well. It's easy to glaze over this as a story from the past that does not involve us. But in truth, Jesus suffered all of this for each one of us. He would have preferred things to go otherwise, but submitted to his Father's will because he knew "it must come to pass in this way." Jesus' passion and death took place in order to bring us salvation. So today, may we not be counted among his many betrayers, but may we be truly grateful for the gift of the cross and show it through a life of sincere faith.

CATHOLIC QUOTES - WORDS TO INSPIRE THE FAITHFUL
 How could I bear a crown of gold when the Lord bears a crown of thorns? And bears it for me!
 --St. Elizabeth of Hungary

V ENCUENTRO: Good news!! We have set the date to begin the small group sessions on the Friday after Easter, April 21st from 6:30 to 8:00 PM at the Cristo Rey Gym; and continuing to meet every Friday thru May 19th. We are also planning for daytime sessions on the same dates for those who cannot attend in the evening; just let us know which is best for you.

We need more people who speak English to serve as facilitators for the small groups in English; training will be provided. And we also need more people to serve as participants in the small groups in English and Spanish. Please sign up at the table outside after Mass NOW! If you have any questions, call Dc. Bill and Angie at: 471-0554.

Cristo Rey will host an Easter Egg Hunt, Easter Sunday, April 16, following the 10:00am Mass in the backyard of the Rectory. We are again asking for your help with filled Easter Eggs. You may bring them to the Parish Office during office hours. Thank You and your support is greatly appreciated.

The Knights Of Columbus will be having a Hosanna Pancake Breakfast at CRISTO REY gym from 9:00 AM to 12:00 PM April 9, Palm Sunday. Proceeds will go to Catholic Education.
