7TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Give to the one who asks of you, and do not turn your back on one who wants to borrow." Today Jesus continues the powerful teaching of his Sermon on the Mount. Typical of this famous sermon, here he urges us to see things in a new way, specifically regarding situations and people who bother us. First, he tells us not to seek revenge. Instead, we are to demonstrate incredible generosity. Then, he instructs us to "love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you." These instructions don't come naturally to most of us. We are much more inclined to want to get even with those who cause us to suffer, and to wish ill for those who have hurt us. But Jesus proposes another way. In truth, what good does it do to seek revenge or foster hate? It only continues the cycle of evil. Jesus encourages behavior that will stop the cycle short. He gives us a model that--although it may not change the heart of our "enemies"--will nonetheless change OUR hearts for the better. When pressed into service for one mile, if we voluntarily go two, then WE are the ones whose attitude and experience is certain to change. Instead of spending the length of that one mile cursing and complaining, we spend the length of two enjoying a surprising kind of freedom: "I chose to do this," instead of "I am being forced to do this." When we practice the generosity of giving more than we are asked, and the charity of praying for those who persecute us, we will find ourselves in a position to transcend the trouble. It sets us free to not be mastered by the evil around us. Thus, we are able to help end the cycle of evil and begin a new cycle of love and peace.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

In today's Gospel Jesus tells us to love our enemies and to pray for those who persecute us. It is one of the most challenging commands of the Gospel for believers. We should consider how well we fulfill this command of the Lord.

Office Closed

The Parish Office will be closed on Monday, February 20, in observance of Presidents Day. Normal hours will resume on Tuesday, February 21. Have a blessed and safe holiday weekend.

Fr. Rob's Bible 101

Resumes this week for a re-cap of The Bible Timeline. For the last 8 sessions, we have been viewing The Mysteries of the Bible video series, which has given us a framework in which to read and understand the Bible. Now that we've completed the series, we'll review the Timeline to reinforce the connections made in the videos. This will be a great catch-up opportunity for those who have recently joined the class or are hoping to start but haven't. Please call or email Fr. Rob with any questions. Otherwise, please join us on Thursday, February 23, at 1:00 and 6:30, at the Monsignor Patrick Smith Center (the old gym) at Cristo Rey.

Attention Catholic communities in or near Santa Fe:

The Archdiocese of Santa Fe invites you to a Small Group Facilitator Training for the V Encuentro

Please join us at one of the following trainings:

- Sat., February 18, 9:00am – 12:00pm at the Catholic Center (4000 St. Joseph's Pl NW, Albuquerque NM 87120)
- Wed., February 22, 6:00pm – 8:30pm at San Juan Bautista in Ohkay Owingeh (185 Popaye Ave, Ohkay Owingeh Pueblo NM 87566)
- Wed., March 8, 6:00pm – 8:30pm at Holy Cross in Santa Cruz (126 S. McCurdy Rd, Santa Cruz, NM 87567)

Through a process of 5 sessions for small groups in parishes, the V (Fifth) Encuentro, called forth by the United States Catholic Bishops, seeks to invite all Catholics to be: Authentic Missionary Disciples: Witnesses of God's Love responding to Pope Francis' call to the New Evangelization.

During this training, participants will familiarize themselves with the materials available, experience one of the sessions and know more about the wonderful initiative of the V Encuentro for the entire Church of the United States. Join us!

All parishes of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe have been invited to participate in this National initiative
