3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"He called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed him." Peter, Andrew, James, and John's lives would never be the same. They were going about their usual business--fishing on the Sea of Galilee--when Jesus approached them and said, "Come after me." And that's just what they did. "At once they left their nets and followed him." Such a quick response to such a radical request! What compelled these men to leave their livelihood to follow the Lord? His promise to them was that he would make them "fishers of men." Perhaps they thought that promise sounded fabulous. But it seems more likely that it was Christ himself who drew the men. There must have been something utterly attractive about him, and completely trustworthy. Otherwise, it seems unbelievable that these men would have been so quick to respond to his call. This compelling man is the same Christ who calls us. We hear his voice in a different way, of course, through the Church and through the Bible, through his Spirit in our hearts, but it is nonetheless the same Jesus of Nazareth who asks us to follow him. Have we allowed ourselves to be drawn by his voice? Are we open to a real encounter with the Lord who changes lives? If our relationship with Jesus does not transform us, if it does not change us into different, better people moment by moment and day by day, then chances are that we are not truly encountering him. He is too powerful to be inconsequential. It might take some courage and commitment to come into authentic contact with the Lord, but when we do, our lives will never be the same.

January is Poverty in America Awareness Month Get involved!

Did you know that 1 in 6 Americans and 1 in 5 children live in poverty, and 1 in 7 households in America do not know where their next meal will come from? According to the US Census data, that means that 46 million people live at or below the poverty line. And New Mexico has the highest rate of poverty in the US. The people of "Poverty USA" are family members, neighbors, colleagues – young and old, black and white, healthy and sick, rural and urban. They are not making the headlines, much less the election-year rhetoric. Many families are struggling but you can help magnify the voice of people who are poor or vulnerable. What can you do?

Start exploring Poverty USA and help awaken others to the struggles of people living in poverty and the inspiring ways in which they are spreading hope. As Catholics, we are called to respond to this immense human suffering! Learn how you can help at www.povertyusa.org and www.usccb.org. Download a daily reflection calendar for the month of January that has links to stories and prayers of how you can help! Go to usccb.org and search for Poverty Awareness Month calendar. (Tip: Our very own Rev. Graham Golden, O.Praem. is featured in one of the stories of action and hope!) It is available in Spanish. Get more resources <http://www.povertyusa.org/poverty-resources/> and be part of the solution!

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Sometimes we get so accustomed to walking in shadows and even in darkness that we forget that there is a light that can illuminate our lives more clearly. That light is Jesus Christ. Have you ever been looking for something in a dimly lit room and when someone shines a light, you suddenly find what you seek? This is how the Gospel works. At first we may not realize that we need it but then when someone shares its good news with us it all becomes clear. Jesus invites us out of darkness and calls us to Christ made my soul beautiful with the jewels of grace and virtue.
